Would you like to spend your summer playing football and learning English?

If so, EduKick Manchester is the place for you! Our Football + English summer course combines professional football coaching with our UEFA qualified coaches and English lessons at our school with our qualified teachers.

There's no better place than Manchester, the home of football!

Think football, think Manchester! It is home to two football giants! So what better place to play football, study and follow your football dreams? Immerse yourself in Manchester's rich footballing history whilst spending time in this young, vibrant and dynamic city.

About the Course

Student players will begin their day with English lessons at our city centre school. Following lunch they will transfer to the training ground. Our UEFA trained football coaches then work with the players on all aspects of the game, including fitness training, stamina and endurance training, and both technical and tactical match play skills. A strong emphasis is placed upon developing each individual within a squad environment.

Football Opportunities

Exceptionally gifted players may be identified at any of the exposure opportunities that are offered.

Some of our recent student player success stories:

Carlos Mora - invited for training/trial at 3 different professional clubs.

Matt Jacobs - invited for a trial Witton Albion.

Carlos Acuna - SIGNED for professional club in Venezuela.

Lawrence Hanna - invited for trial with Professional club Accrington Stanley.

Eric Behrans - SIGNED for professional club Derby County FC.

Sam Zimmerman - Representing his country Liechtenstein at under 21 level.
